Biographical/Administrative History

Born into a German family in Milwaukee, Wisconsin on March 9, 1903, Albert Meyer was surrounded by religion at a young age. His parents, Peter Meyer and Mathilda Thelen Meyer, attended St. Mary's Church, and sent their children to St. Mary's School. He continued his studies at Marquette Academy, where his dedication to his studies led him to enter St. Francis diocesan seminary a year early. Meyer's demonstrated abilities and fervent pursuit of knowledge earned him the opportunity to study at the North American College in Rome, Italy. He completed his studies in 5 years, and, in July of 1926, he was ordained to the priesthood at the Church of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva in Rome by Cardinal Basilio Pompilj. After a brief return to Milwaukee, Meyer was sent back to Rome to study at the Pontifical Bible Institute for three years.

Meyer served a one year appointment at St. Joseph's Church in Waukesha before Archbishop Messmer transferred him to a teaching position at St. Francis Seminary in 1931. Returning to an academic environment, Meyer thrived teaching classes in a number of disciplines, heading several clubs, and taking an active role in the community. On March 15, 1938, Meyer received the designation of domestic prelate and right reverend monsignor. Just 8 years later, Meyer was named Bishop of Superior. On April 11, 1946, he was consecrated at St. John's Cathedral by Archbishop Kiley. He was officially installed on May 10th of that year. Beginning a campaign of building schools and expanding churches, he garnered the support of his community and sealed his popularity.

Following the death of Archbishop Kiley, Meyer was named Archbishop of Milwaukee on July 21, 1953. During his time in Milwaukee, Meyer continued the aggressive building programs he had encouraged in Superior. Schools, universities, churches, hospitals, and convents all expanded at the urging and fundraising of Archbishop Meyer. He also continued his patronage of clubs and community groups like the Holy Name Society, the Catholic Youth Organization, and the National Catholic Welfare Council. A testament to his value as archbishop of Milwaukee, Meyer was named the replacement for Cardinal Stritch in Chicago upon his death on September 24, 1958. Meyer's enthusiasm for work and social change did not go unnoticed in his new city.

On November 16, 1959, Pope John XXIII nominated Meyer to the College of Cardinals. Just one month later, the Pope gave Meyer the red biretta and his titular church—St. Cecelia in Trastevere. The Cardinal's commitment to social justice and community building marked his reign well into the civil rights era. Albert Cardinal Meyer died on April 9, 1965.
