Biographical/Administrative History

Samuel Stritch was born in Nashville, Tennessee on August 17, 1887, the seventh of eight children of Garrett and Katherine (Malley) Stritch.

He attended high school in Tennessee, where he graduated at the age of 14. He then attended St. Gregory's Minor Seminary in Cincinnati for two years, the American College in Rome for six years, and the Urban College of Propaganda in Rome where he received a doctorate in philosophy (1906) and theology (1910). He was ordained by Cardinal Pierre Respighi in Rome on May 21, 1910 at the age of twenty two.

After ordination, Stritch was appointed as assistant pastor Assumption parish in Nashville. He also served as assistant pastor of St. Patrick's in Nashville before being named secretary to Bishop Thomas S. Byrne in 1916. He continued his service with the Diocese of Nashville when he was appointed Chancellor of the diocese in 1918, while also serving as superintendent of schools and rector of the Nashville Cathedral.

On August 10, 1921 Stritch was appointed Bishop of the Diocese of Toledo. During his episcopate in Toledo he was responsible for the building of twenty four churches and the opening of the first diocesan teachers college in the nation.

Stritch was then appointed to the See of Milwaukee, being named Archbishop on August 26, 1930. His episcopate in Milwaukee lasted nine years and was marked by a continued effort to strengthen diocesan charitable work in light of the Depression.

He was appointed to the See of Chicago on December 27, 1939, following the death of George Cardinal Mundelein. The early years of his Chicago episcopate were marked by a number of developments: the reorganization of the diocesan newspaper, The New World; the erection of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; and the improvement of urban conditions through the Cardinal's Conservation Council. He was elevated to the College of Cardinals on February 18, 1946.

As was the case with his predecessor in Chicago, Cardinal Mundelein, Stritch was also at the forefront of national activities. His participation as a member of the National Catholic Welfare Conference was perhaps his most notable role. He served as Chairman of the Administrative Board in 1940 and 1946, Vice Chair and Treasurer from 1943-1945, and ex officio member from 1956-1958. Besides serving as a member of the Administrative Board, he also served the NCWC as a member of the Catholic War Relief Services Committee (1940, 1942-1946, 1956-1958) and the Russian Committee. He also helped organize the NCWC backed Polish War Relief Drive.

Stritch was also involved with other national Catholic organizations that were included under the umbrella of the NCWC. These included the American Bishops Special Committee on the Pope's Peace Plan (Chair, 1941-1958); the American Board of Catholic Missions (Chair 1941-1958); the National Catholic Community Service organization (President, 1939-1944); the National Catholic Youth Conference; the Bishops Committee for the Montezuma Seminary (1945); the Bishops Committee for the Spanish Speaking (General Chairman of the Executive Board 1952-1958); the Catholic Committee for Refugees (1953); and the Bishops Committee for Migrant Workers (Chair 1957-1958).

Besides the NCWC organizations, Stritch was also involved with the The Holy Father's Palestine Refugee Fund (1953-1954); the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (Board of Directors, 1945); the Catholic Near East Welfare Association; and the Catholic Church Extension Society (Chancellor 1939-1957). He was also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Catholic University of America.

In 1958, at the request of Pope Pius XII, Stritch was appointed Pro-Prefect of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith. He departed Chicago for Rome on April 27, 1958. During his voyage to Rome, he contracted an occlusion of the artery in his right arm and upon arrival in Rome the arm was amputated. During his recovery from the amputation he suffered a stroke and died on May 27, 1958. His body is interred at Mount Carmel Cemetery.

Provenance

The collection was received in four separate accessions. The bulk of the material was transferred from the Archives previous location at St. Mary of the Lake University in Mundelein. During the transfer, some material was erroneously marked as Personal Papers. This material is now included in the Chancery Correspondence Files.

The bulk of Stritch's correspondence as Ordinary of the Archdiocese is located in the Chancery Correspondence Files. These files were maintained in the Chancery before being stored in the basement of Quigley South Seminary. The Personal Papers of Cardinal Stritch, of which this collection is solely comprised, were maintained at the Cardinal's Residence at 1550 N. State Parkway in Chicago before being transferred to the Seminary after Stritch's death in 1958. Much of this material contains hand written notes by Stritch written on documents reading "file this at home."

Accruals

A second accession was made on March 21, 1988. Rev. Steven Avella donated .25 cubic feet of material. This is now included in the personal correspondence series.

Accession #198816504 : A third transfer of material from the Seminary occurred on June 14, 1988. This material was found in the basement vault of the Administration Building and consisted mainly of awards and honor received, printed material, and ephemera.

A fourth accession to the collection occurred on August 1, 1988. Rev. Steven Avella, at the behest of an anonymous donor, presented the Archives with two pieces of correspondence between Stritch and Msgr. George Higgins of the NCWC.

Separations

The NCWC material is dispersed between the Chancery Correspondence and the Personal Papers. Reasons for the maintenance of two similar

Scope & Content

The collection is housed in forty nine boxes (twenty eight document boxes, eleven half-document boxes, and ten oversized boxes).

Some oversized material has been removed from its original order and placed in oversized containers. In all such cases, a separation form, which accompanies the material, denotes the content of the material, the previous location, and the new location.

Co-lateral collections for photographs and audio recordings have been established.
