Biographical/Administrative History

According to a records description dated July 2, 1990, the Catholic Young People's Friend magazine was the monthly publication of Angel Guardian Orphanage. Publication began on September 1, 1877 as a weekly publication through August 1879. In 1879, the magazine was published bi-monthly, and then in 1895 it became monthly. In September 1964, the orphanage ceased publication of the German language edition.

Provenance

This collection was originally a gift of Victor R. Sutter, but the Archdiocese Archives and Records Center received it from Father Conway at Catholic Charities on February 4, 1988.

Separations

Scope & Content

The Archives and Records Center has twenty archival boxes of bound volumes from 1877 through 1954. Additionally, there are nine boxes of unbound issues from various years dating 1898 through 1968. The bound volumes have been bound by volume year, which is September through August. Beginning in September 1932 (volume 56), the orphanage began to print two separate publications: English-only Catholic Young People's Friend and the German and English Katholischer Jugendfreund. If both volumes for a particular year could not fit into one box, there is a notation as to which edition for the year is in the box. The unbound issues have been foldered according to calendar year. This collection often lacks certain issues and therefore the notes indicate which months are in the box. Some issues are particularly fragile and have been foldered separately.
