Biographical/Administrative History

Charles N. Meter was born in Chicago on March 1, 1911. The family moved to Wilmette where he attended St. Francis Xavier Grammar School. He entered Quigley Preparatory Seminary and took philosophy and theology at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary. After being ordained on April 28, 1936 by Cardinal George Mundelein with a S. T. L. degree, Meter was sent to the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music in Rome where he received a Master's degree in Gregorian Chant and a S. T. L. in Sacred Music in 1941. In 1949, De Paul University conferred on Meter an honorary Doctorate of Music.

Meter was a professor of music at Quigley Preparatory Seminary from 1939-1963. In addition, he was director of the Cardinal's Cathedral Choristers 1941-1963, director of the Archdiocese Priests Choir 1941-1965, director of the Gregorian Chant Choir 1939-1941, secretary and later president of the Sacred Music Commission 1953-1975, a member of the Liturgical Commission which was organized by Cardinal Meyer in 1964 and its function was absorbed by the Office of Divine Worship in 1975, president of the American Federation of the Pueri Cantores 1953-1986. In 1963, Meter was appointed pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Wilmette and in 1981 he was elevated to the status of pastor emeritus.

In 1949 Meter was made a Papal Chamberlain with the title of Very Reverend Monsignor and in 1959 he was made a Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor.

The Commission for Sacred Music of the Archdiocese of Chicago was established by Samuel Cardinal Stritch in 1953. Its purpose was "to further and encourage in a practical way proper sacred music in the Archdiocese." Msgr. Edward Burke, Chancellor of the Archdiocese, was appointed chairman, with Msgr. Meter as secretary. In 1962, Meter became chairman and Msgr. Joseph Mroczkowski became secretary, positions both men held until 1975.

Under Meter's direction, the Commission conducted general meetings, seminars and workshops for organists and choir directors, and supplied and recommended materials for their use.

In September 1955, Cardinal Stritch promulgated legislation of church music for the Archdiocese. This legislation was prepared by the Music Commission and it banned music that was considered unliturgical for weddings. Among the forbidden works: the Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches, several Ave Marias, including Schubert's and Gounod's, and popular English selections such as I Love You Truly, O Promise Me, and Because. This ban was reported not only in the local press, but also in Time and Newsweek.

For over twenty five years, Meter was recognized as the "music man" of the Archdiocese. Referrals on questions and for recommendations on Sacred Music were made to him by the Cardinal Archbishops, Chancellors, and other diocesan officials.

After the liturgical apostolate was reorganized by John Cardinal Cody in 1975, Meter's impact and advice continued to be sought by diocesan and commission officials.

Msgr. Meter died on October 6, 1998 at the rectory of St. Joseph Parish, Wilmette, Illinois.

nsignor Meter presented his papers to the Archives of the Archdiocese of Chicago on January 27, 1988, the date of the dedication of the climate controlled archives storage room at 5150 NW Highway which was named after the first officially supported Archdiocesan archivist, Fr. Menceslaus Madaj.

Accruals

This collection as it currently appears was processed in two accessions. The first accession was received as above on January 27, 1988. The second accession was received on October 6, 1998, the date of Msgr. Meter's death. The second accession of this collection was processed and the finding aid was updated in December 2000 and January 2001. All papers received in the second accession are marked as such in the series outline, series description, and container list.

Separations

Yearbooks from Quigley Preparatory Seminary, La Petit Seminaire, travel memorabilia, and holy cards were also received. Yearbooks were a

Scope & Content

The collection was processed in March and April 1988.

These papers document the role of sacred music in the Archdiocese of Chicago from the Pre Vatican II days of 1950's and early 1960's the dramatic changes that took place in the late 1960's as the liturgy changed from the use of Latin to the vernacular, and the liturgical renewal of 1970's.

The papers received in the second accession document the history of music at Holy Name Cathedral, musical and liturgical events with which Msgr. Meter was associated, and writings and notes by Msgr. Meter. They also document his professional life in personal correspondence.

A large number of photographs and sound recordings were also received with the second accession.
