Biographical/Administrative History

Presentation B.V.M. Parish was established on August 2, 1898 to serve the Irish Catholics who lived in the area south of St. Mel Parish in West Lawndale. Its initial boundaries were Harrison St. on the north, 12th St. on the south, 50th (now Lavergne) Ave. on the west, and Central Park Ave. on the east. The first pastor was James J. Jennings and masses were held in a two-story storefront. Construction on a church and school combination building began shortly thereafter, which was dedicated February 12, 1899.

Growing from 130 to 300 families in its first two years, the parish opened the school in 1900, staffed by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In a matter of three years, Presentation outgrew its first building and in 1902 broke ground on a Spanish Renaissance style church, the cornerstone of which was laid April 26, 1903 and finished in 1909. By 1923, 1,100 children were enrolled at the school. In 1934, Fr. Jennings retired as pastor of Presentation, and was replaced by Rev. Francis O. McCarthy.

Presentation remained a predominantly Irish parish until the 1950s, when the Eisenhower Expressway opened and the neighborhood became home to a struggling black community. Parish membership dropped from 1,574 families in 1950 to 700 families by 1959, while going from having almost no black members to 66.9% African Americans by 1960 and 93.9% by 1970.

In 1966, Msgr. McCarthy retired and was replaced by Msgr. John J. Egan, former director of the Archdiocesan Office of Urban Affairs. Under Msgr. Egan's leadership Presentation began a program known as "twinning" (later "sharing") with St. Joseph Church in Libertyville, Illinois, which allowed members of St. Joseph's to donate to Presentation in their weekly collections. Masses, picnics and breakfasts were also sponsored to bring families of the two parishes together. This model would eventually be used throughout the diocese.

Fr. Raymond Cusack replaced Msgr. Egan as pastor in 1970, and in 1977 Presentation and Precious Blood parishes joined their schools together to form the new Presentation-Precious Blood Unit School, in cooperation with the Adrian Dominican Sisters. In 1980, St. Agatha Parish joined to form Our Lady of the Westside School, with each of the three campuses serving different grade levels. During the 1970s and 1980s Presentation responded to the needs of the local community by opening its doors to a variety of innovative programs and organizations, including Head Start, adult continuing education, a GED center, a day care, health center, drug awareness programs, summer youth and employment programs, as well as a parish food pantry.

In 1982, due to the age of buildings and a vastly reduced number of parishioners, the church, rectory and boys' school buildings were closed. The convent was renovated to become the rectory (third floor), convent (second floor), church offices (first floor) and day care center (basement). The building was renamed the Burgette Center, in honor of Everette Burgette, Presentation's first permanent deacon who died in 1976. The auditorium of the girl's school was renovated to become the new church.

In 1987, Father Cusack retired and Rev. Mark Sorvillo was appointed the fifth pastor of Presentation. The parish continued to play a strong role in the community. Presentation joined with churches of different denominations to form the Westside Isaiah Plan, a faith based program that built new homes on properties that had been vacant for nearly twenty years. Westside Habitat for Humanity opened their office in the Burgette Center, and in 1992 Community in Action was founded to help bring local residents together to create solutions to problems such as drugs and gang violence in the neighborhood.

In 1993, Rev. Thomas Walsh was appointed the sixth and final pastor of Presentation. The parish joined with other neighborhood churches, block clubs and organizations to sponsor marches and prayer vigils on the streets of the community. The parish continued to be staffed by Dominican sisters, as well as the School Sisters of Notre Dame. In 1997, the land where the old church, rectory and boy's school were located was converted into a park, operated by the Chicago Park District. In 2005 it was decided the struggling parish would be merged with nearby St. Agatha Parish in Lawndale. At the time of its last mass on June 26, 2005, Presentation had approximately 240 families (190 registered) in its parish. Our Lady of the Westside School continued to operate after Presentation's closing with support from Precious Blood and St. Agatha parishes.

Scope & Content

The collection comprises 15 archival boxes (legal size: 12 full, 2 half, 1 oversize) totaling seven linear feet. The largest portion of the collection is parish bulletins. The earliest of the bulletins are bound, while later bulletins have been arranged in folders by year. The remainder of the collection consists of annual reports, budgets, correspondence, photographs, printed materials and school files.

Notable portions of the collection include commemorative books from the Golden, Diamond, and 100 year anniversaries of the parish, as well as a bulletin and commemorative book from Presentation's last mass. The collection also includes class photographs from Presentation school from as early as 1906.
